COMES NOW, the Plaintiff, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”), and in response to the Court's request at the Pretrial Conference, submits the following Proposed Questions for the Jury Questionnaire:

1. Has a Charge of Discrimination ever been filed with the EEOC against you or your employer? Have you ever been involved in an EEOC Charge of Discrimination?
 - a. What were circumstances?
 - b. What was outcome?
 - c. Was it resolved to your satisfaction?
2. Has anyone ever complained that you or a close friend or family member subjected them to discrimination in the workplace?
3. Have you or a close friend or family member ever owned a business or franchised a business?
4. Have you or a close friend or family member ever been an officer or director of a corporation or a franchise?
 - a. What position held?
 - b. Nature of business?
5. Have you or a close friend or family member ever been sued?

6. How do you feel about the size of money awards given in trials today?
____ Too large
____ OK
____ Too small?
7. As a juror, would you be unable to award compensatory damages for any reason?
8. As a juror, would you be unable to award punitive damages for any reason?
9. Do you think that a company should not be penalized or punished with additional damages if it is proven it intentionally violated an employee's rights?
10. Do you think that Congress and the federal government have gone too far in making and enforcing laws that prohibit discrimination in the workplace?
11. Do you believe that the federal government should not be involved in discrimination lawsuits?
12. Do you think that discrimination no longer occurs at the workplace in the United States when it comes to employing individuals with disabilities?
13. Have you ever heard of the Americans with Disabilities Act? Do you understand that it is a law that prevents discrimination in the workplace against disabled employees?
14. Is there anything about your life or work experience that would prevent you from being a fair and impartial juror in this case here today?

Respectfully Submitted:
